RE: Conditions claims

REConsideration Motion

Plaintiff Submit that in regards to my conditions claims Samuel argues that by being deprived of a toilet brush for six months the toilet had a dirty build up when I was put in the cell in SHU/Max and builded up more while I was forced to use the unclean toilet. Also I submitted that in addition I was deprived of a mop that I had to clean my cell floor with a sponge (used) by hand. The Plaintiff argues that these unsanitary presented a health risk and it was cruel that I had to ~~live~~ be house in such unsanitary condition.

Plaintiff Submit in regard to the deprived of a pillow. Samuel argues that I was without a pillow for six months after asking the building sargent a few times for a pillow. This deprivation made it hard for me to sleep and my claim was discrimination because other inmates was given these state issue pillows in the SHU/Max.

Conclusion

Plaintiff ask the court to award Plaintiff $100,000.00 in monetary relief or award what the court see fit.
